LIGHTS OUT!

New Proclamation Drastic In Scope

When night falls in Daly City, hereafter, it's going to be dark in the old-fashioned sense of the word. No neons will gleam in the windows or over the doorways of restaurants, bars, and theatres. Street lights will be out, or shielded to a dull flicker.

When Lieutenant General John L. DeWitt, yesterday issued a public proclamation ordering a nightly semi-blackout for the entire Pacific seaboard, Daly City prepared for a "duration" spent in darkness.

Situated on top of the hill, with lights plainly visible out at sea, this community is one of the most vitally affected cities on the Pacific coast. Lights of the city were dimmed by the recent order of the Twelfth Naval District for lights visible from the sea, but yesterday's order by General DeWitt was even more strict.

Mission street, main thoroughfare of Daly City, will be practically in total darkness. Lights on all stores, restaurants, and taverns will be doused. The lighted marquee in front of the Daly City theatre will be blacked out. Lighting which is affected by the proclamation of the Western Defense Command includes commercial floodlighting, signs and display lighting, ground areas and industrial illumination, traffic signs and signals, and navigation lights and signals.

As Arthur J. Bodien, civilian defense director here and head of local light dim-out, launched initial operations, yesterday, to comply with the army order in Daly City lighting, he warned all citizens of this community to heed carefully the penalty included in General DeWitt's proclamation for violation: that any person allowing such lights to burn and thereby violating the provisions of the proclamation would be subject to immediate exclusion from the territory of

Defense Officials Study Evacuation

If an enemy attack in the Bay area necessitates evacuation of San Francisco and other Bay area cities, it will mean a tangled mass of hundreds of thousands of human beings surging southward through Daly City and down the Peninsula.

This is the grave realization that faces Daly City's Civilian Defense Council and residents of this city, according to Police Chief James G. Reardon in discussing plans for evacuation, an issue under fire at present in San Francisco defense circles.

Chief Reardon pointed out that evacuation of San Francisco would place even greater burden on the traffic situation through Daly City with the close of certain thoroughfares for civilian

Make Those Fats Do "Double Duty"

Your patriotic donations of waste fats and grease to your local butcher carry double aid to America's war effort, according to the Daly City Salvage for Victory committee.

1. The waste fats and grease which you donate to the butcher in the national salvage drive are used in the manufacture of munitions for our military and naval war operations.

2. You are helping the USO to keep our service men happy, since all proceeds in selling waste

Legion Nears Quota Of Phonograph Records

With the "Records for Our Fighting Men" campaign winding up this week, Daly City donations of phonograph records reached 2,300, Monday. Quota for this community is 3,675.

Phonograph records were still pouring into local stores, as Daly City people donated old, cracked, and broken records to the drive. Proceeds from the drive will provide new records of the latest music for men in the nation's service camps, both at home and abroad.

The drive is locally sponsored by Daly City Post No. 410, American Legion, and Daly City Unit No. 410, American Legion auxiliary.

A. G. K. Jakobsen and Mrs. Marcie Trier, co-chairmen of the campaign, expressed their appreciation to those who have, so far, given their old phonograph records to the drive. There is still

Mrs. Marie Burton Injured In Fire

Mrs. Marie Burton, director of the Daly City WPA Recreation department, is reported to be resting easier at San Francisco hospital, following injuries sustained in a four alarm fire that raged, early Monday morning, in the San Francisco apartment house where she resided.

Rescued in the building by firemen and civilian volunteers, Mrs. Burton suffered from severe shock and was overcome by smoke. San Francisco hospital also reported that she might possibly have sustained a fractured rib, although X-ray reports had not yet been returned, Tuesday.

One hundred persons were saved, and Mrs. Burton was among 34 injured in the blaze at 434 Leavenworth avenue. Twenty-six companies were called out to fight the fire, one of the largest in San Francisco for a long time.

Mrs. Burton was taken to Central Emergency hospital, with others, when she was rescued. She was later transferred to San Francisco hospital.

Tin Can Salvage Aids Blood Bank

Finances of the San Mateo County Blood Bank were bolstered by the donation of two checks from the Daly City Civilian Defense Council, this week. The contribution amounted to $90 and will be used to help defray operating expenses of the county's blood institution.

The money represented proceeds received in payment of Daly City tin can collections to offset the nation's shortage of tin.

Blood plasma, the difference between life and death in many cases of transfusions in an emergency operation, is needed by the San Mateo County Blood Bank, and all able Daly City people

Murder Trial Opens In Redwood

Prosecution of murder charges against George Pavlos, accused slayer of Robert Darnell in a Daly City apartment house on the morning of Sunday, April 26, was begun, yesterday morning at 10 a. m., in the superior court in Redwood City.

Expected to be important and conclusive evidence used against Pavlos, a Daly City restaurant employee, is a 22 calibre rifle owned by the defendant and allegedly used to kill Darnell. Pavlos admitted ownership of the gun to police after the shooting occurred, but denied that he had anything to do with the murder.

Darnell's murder occurred in the hallway of the Hillcrest apartments, 27 Hillcrest drive, at 4 a. m. as he arose from bed to answer a persistent knocking at the door. Darnell answered the door, and when he found no one there, he went out into the hallway where he was shot, according to testimony revealed by

Lions Prepare For Social Events

Entertainment committees of the Daly City-Colma Lions club are, this week, busily engaged in preparations for two big social events.

A big time is in store for the ladies of Daly City-Colma Lions, Wednesday evening, when Ladies Night will be held at Old Colonial Inn on Junipero Serra boulevard. A dinner dance will be held in honor of the ladies on that night. Committee for the affair includes Larry Comer, Dr. J. C. McGovern, and R. L. Crane jr.

The other event planned by the Lions is a picnic to be staged at Memorial park in Pescadero, Sunday, September 20, for Lions and their families.

Working on this picnic are the following members of the entertainment committee: William Sweeney, Dr. McGovern, Hugh Smith jr., and Dr. W. J. Lanthearne.

Get Tin Cans Ready!

Is that box of tin cans in your home filling up? Then, get set, housewives, for the next tin can pickup, Sunday, August 16.

On that date put the cans in a box on the street corner nearest your home and they will be picked up by the city truck, taken to the re-processing plant, and converted into metal for Uncle Sam's war production.

Fred H. McLeod Graduates In Texas

Private Fred H. McLeod, son of Mrs. Mary A. McLeod, 144 Los Olivos avenue, Daly City, was a graduate recently from an intensive course in aviation mechanics at Sheppard field, Texas.

Sheppard field, near Wichita Falls, is one of the many Army Air Forces Technical Training Command schools which trains the ground crews to "Keep 'Em Flying."

Pickup Truck Zooms Into Tavern

When a pickup truck zoomed down the Bepler street hill, crossed Mission street at a high rate of speed, and crashed into Sam's Inn, 6267 Mission street, early Thursday morning, Maurice Allen, San Bruno, driver, suffered a broken back, broken pelvis, and severe cuts on the head.

George Savage and Henry Sundermann jr., Daly City police officers, arrived on the scene and rushed Allen to Villa hospital in the ambulance.

The entire front of the tavern, operated by Sam Castro, was demolished by the crash. The truck failed to stop until the front end of the machine reached the bar, approximately ten feet inside the front door. Glass from the frontage shattered and was strewn about the room. Chairs and tables were knocked across the room to the back wall, police said.

Luckily, the accident occurred at 2:15 a. m., fifteen minutes after closing time, and no one was in the tavern.

Allen was unconscious when he was taken from the wreckage and police officers were unable to question him. However, Allen later said that he made an attempt to turn on Mission street, but the truck got out of control and was going too fast to make the turn.

Following treatment at Villa hospital the San Bruno man was removed to St. Mary's hospital in San Francisco.

Wonder Who Broke Those Windows?

Twenty-four broken windows, results of a window breaking raid on Woodrow Wilson Elementary school and the Jefferson District Administration building, were discovered, Monday morning by R. L. Crane jr., district superintendent.

Two large panes at the front of the school building were broken, but most of the damage was done in the rear and on the side of the building. The primary school, facing Miriam street on the same lot, also had windows broken. The two windows on the administration building

Victory Committee Urges Cooperation

The steel shortage, which is seriously threatening America's gigantic war effort, is first and foremost a scrap shortage. That's why the support of every Daly City citizen is needed in the current drive for scrap metal.

Two instructions are given to scrap metal donors by the Daly City Salvage for Victory committee.

1. Comb your attics, basements, garages, or anywhere else that scrap metal might be. Then take it to the local collection depot, a vacant lot across from the Daly City theatre on Mission street. A sign, "Drop your Scrap and Lick a Jap," marks the spot.

2. If the junk is too heavy or bulky, like an old stove or a portion of an automobile body, call HEMlock 7171, Coca-Cola Bottling company, tell them you have the junk, give them your address, and they will send a truck to your residence to pick up the heavy articles.

Coca-Cola in San Francisco is participating in the national drive under the auspices of the Soft Drink Industries, Inc. The junk which they pick up at your home is credited to the San Mateo County and Daly City campaigns for scrap metal.

The committee is now planning for a huge junk rally to be held during the first week of school, commencing Monday, August 31, and continuing through Saturday, September 5, when a mammoth Junk Rally Day will be held. School children will participate in this drive during that first week of school.

However, R. L. Crane jr., salvage chairman, and his committee, Frank Coughlin and Mrs. Ethel Dorn, pointed out to local citizens that you are not required to wait for the junk rally; that NOW is the time for YOU

Daly City was well represented in the group, Friday, sending eleven men among the 29.

Einar Hansen Turns In Fine Performance

In the navy relief challenge golf matches at Harding park, Sunday, Einar Hansen, Daly City golf star, turned in one of the finest of the single matches to win 2½ points from Bud Brownell of Stanford. Hansen shot one over par.

By virtue of Hansen's sparkling victory, the public links golfers defeated the private club players, 32½ to 21½, in the challenge matches. Hansen is one of California's top golfers and is captain of the San Mateo golf club team.

Farralone Packers Defeat Yankees

Scoring three runs in the eighth inning to break a 3 to 3 tie, the hard hitting Daly City Farralone Packers triumphed over the Kenneally Yankees at Marchbank park, Sunday, in the opening game of a double bill.

Hotly contested all the way, the game was not decided until the last out. Although the Packers turned in a great performance the Yankees likewise played air tight ball. Featuring defensive play in the game were two double plays completed by the Packers at critical stages.

Fans at Marchbank park were again thrilled in the overtime eleventh inning of the second game, between the San Francisco Aerie No. 61 Eagles and the East Bay Boilermakers' Union No. 39. With the score 1 to 1 in the eleventh, the Eagles bunched two hits and one walk to score the winning run, and triumph, 2 to 1. The Eagles are coached by Coach Smithie, Daly City baseball enthusiast.

Members of the Colma Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848 and the Eagles No. 61 drew plenty of laughs from the crowd in a two inning comedy exhibition between games.

Charlie Norry, manager of the Packers, played host to fans and players alike between games at a barbecue at the field in the new pit recently installed there.

Refreshments after the final game were enjoyed at the Eagles hall, 6276 Mission street.

MARLENE DIETRICH co-stars with Randolph Scott and John Wayne in Frank Lloyd's Universal picturization of the Rex Beach classic, "The Spoilers," currently playing at the Daly City theatre.

Murder Trial Opens In Redwood

Mrs. Clara Parriot, common law wife of the victim. Mrs. Parriot was in the Darnell apartment at the time, and it was she who answered the first knock at the door.

Pavlos, who lived in the apartment above the Darnell room in the same building was arrested by Daly City police officers when Mrs. Parriot accused him of the shooting. The rifle was found in a broken condition in a light well outside Pavlos' apartment by Officer Joe Kusber. The bullet which pierced Darnell's head was found to be a .22 calibre.

Pavlos has been held in custody of the sheriff's office in Redwood City awaiting trial, which began yesterday.

"The Spoilers" Now At Daly City

Heralded as one of the most memorable pictures of screen history and based on the best of Rex Beach's best-seller books, "The Spoilers" comes to the Daly City theatre, tonight.

The raw, teeming saga of the Klondike co-stars Marlene Dietrich, Randolph Scott and John Wayne. Produced for Universal by Frank Lloyd, maker of such screen smashes as "Mutiny on the Bounty" and the contemporary "Saboteur," the film backs its three-way constellation with a pretentious supporting cast. Among the featured players are Margaret Lindsay, who will have the opposite feminine lead; Harry Carey, top-liner of more than 300 pictures; Richard Barthelmess, in a comeback character lead, and William Farnum, star of the original "Spoilers."

In addition, Robert W. Service, poet laureate of the Alaskan gold rush and writer of "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," appears on the screen for the first time, playing himself in a brief sequence.

The keynote of the new "Spoilers" is the famous quotation from Kipling, "There's never a law of man or God holds North of '53."

It is the story of La Dietrich as Cherry Malotte, a shrewd, seductive, beautiful woman, and of the two men who fought to the death over her love and the possession of the fabulous Midas gold mine.

It is said that the unforgettable fist-fight of the first "Spoilers" has been re-filmed by Producer Lloyd with even closer vividness and spell-binding action. Another highlight is the scene in which Stephen Passafiume jr., 667 San Diego avenue, will claim Miss Margie Eldridge as his bride, Saturday evening. The ceremony will take place at Grace Presbyterian church at 7 p. m. Miss Eldridge and Passafiume cordially invite all of their friends to attend.

Now enjoying a two weeks vacation from his duties as city clerk is Burt C. Ross. He will return to his office, Monday.

Our Farmers Fight the War with ELECTRIC POWER

THERE'S AN ARMY in California that never smells the smoke of battle, yet is waging a determined offensive to help win the war. It is our battalions of farmers, marshalled in every fertile valley, producing food stores by the shipload for the sustenance of our armed forces and those of the United Nations. The farm troops fight with modern weapons, chief of which is Electric Power. California's agriculturists lead those of all other states in the United States in their employment of Electricity for bigger and better crops.

In the 46 counties into which P.G. & E. lines extend, there are 77,181 farms within one-quarter mile of an electric distribution line. Of this total, 95.9% have electric service for the lighting of buildings and operation of a legion of time and labor saving machines and appliances.

Better than nine out of every ten farms in the territory we serve are increasing their production of vegetables, fruits, grains, poultry and livestock, with the aid of tireless and efficient electrical helpers. This means much in this day when every able bodied man is needed for military service or industrial labor.

For many years this Company has been building its agricultural service—extending lines, improving service, reducing rates, making available to every rural district the advantages of Electricity for farm operation.

The war emergency now finds Agriculture here fully equipped electrically to provide record breaking supplies of victory foods.

Latin Colony Plans Victory Day Event

Half a million dollars in United States War Bonds and Stamps—that's the goal of the North Beach Victory Campaign which started August 1 and will be climaxed August 15 with a giant Victory Day celebration in San Francisco's colorful Latin colony.

Victory Day should be one of the greatest fetes ever held in the city, one that is expected to top the Rice Bowl, Polk Gulch, Columbus Day, and every other big-time affair in San Francisco's history.

It will be held Saturday afternoon and evening, August 15, with a Victory auction, various Bond and Stamp concessions, a three-hour outdoor variety show in Washington Square, indoor and outdoor dances, a puppet rodeo, symphony concert, exhibitions of wine-making, parades, military displays, bocci ball tournaments, and many other features.

From 1 p. m. on Victory Day, when the chimes of SS Peter and Paul's church open the celebration with patriotic music, until a high Victory Mass is celebrated the following morning, North Beach Victory Day will parade a 1942 version of Mardi Gras, Old World Carnival and authentic American Hoopla.

All prizes for all tournaments will be War Bonds and Stamps. No admission will be charged for any event, but Bonds and Stamps will be sold everyone.

LIGHTS OUT!

The Western Defense Command. The army will not hesitate to enforce this order, Bodien added. After talking to Frank Hansen, Pacific coast lighting engineer for the federal government, Bodien announced that a lighting consultant, a special engineer, will be assigned to Daly City and the surrounding territory shortly. He will work with local officials to extinguish all lighting included in the ban, acting in an advisory capacity.

A canvass of all business houses was made last night by Bodien, with the Daly City Police department, to see that all neon lighting was extinguished. The local enforcement of the army order began with neon lighting and commercial display illumination, since this is termed the most hazardous.

In a breakdown of the proclamation, Bodien submitted the provisions with respect to Daly City and how they would affect this city:

1. Commercial floodlighting and lighted display signs—The most hazardous form of this type of lighting in Daly City is the neon signs which are found on business houses, restaurants, and taverns. These neon signs will be put out, "whether they are in windows or any place else," according to Bodien.

2. Ground areas and industrial illumination—Service stations in Daly City are the main outdoor areas under this provision. The large floodlights must be put out. The provisions also included outdoor areas and playgrounds.

3. Traffic signals and signs—The two traffic lights in Daly City are extinguished at 9 p. m. each evening. They will not be permitted to be illuminated after dusk.

4. Navigation lights and railroad signals—This provision will not effect the city officials, since any railroad signals in the city are not under municipal jurisdiction and will be enforced anyway.

In addition to the above provisions, General DeWitt incorporated the rules of the dim-out order by the Twelfth Naval District, directing them to Daly City, San Mateo county, and other areas whose lighting is visible from the sea. Under these were:

1. Street and highway lighting—This lighting is required to be shielded from the seaward side. Bodien said that this is handled by the Pacific Gas and Electric company.

2. Residential lighting—Windows which are visible from the sea must be covered by drapes or shades.

3. Street and highway traffic in areas visible from the sea—Only two lighted driving lamps, regardless of the direction of travel, are permitted on vehicles. Not more than 250 beam candlepower is allowed.

4. Industrial fires—All lights from the industrial plants visible from the sea must be shielded. Fires and bonfires are prohibited, and Bodien placed special emphasis on the prohibition of burning rubbish after dark.

The proclamation becomes effective after Thursday, August 20, according to the proclamation, but Bodien pointed out that it meant that the lighting ban must be absolutely complete by that time.

THEY KNOW IT'S SERIOUS

A few wishful thinkers are still able to view civilian defense preparations as somewhat needless... but not even one of the air raid wardens in Precinct 7 holds such a silly opinion. Evidence of their earnest desire to meet the very real danger of raids in this area is found in the fact that all ten have completed their basic training, seven have been issued gas masks, and all have taken advanced first aid, in addition to the prescribed instruction in this field.

These wardens meet every other Friday night at the home of Warden Bullo, 163 Evergreen avenue. Day air raid wardens have also been organized for Precinct 7. All five are women.

Each pint of blood that is donated to this very worthy cause is part of the blood plasma that is stored under refrigeration in the county's blood bank. The blood bank, an innovation in county medical circles with the outbreak of the war, has set a goal of 1000 units of blood plasma to be stored at all times. The blood plasma is used for any emergency in San Mateo county where a blood transfusion is necessary.

Mrs. Catherine Foreman, Daly City chairman, asked all Daly City persons who are interested in donating a pint of blood to contact her at Randolph 10376.

POLITICS

(Editor's Note—Here are more stories about the men who are seeking your support at the polls, August 25. The Record is following its traditional policy of presenting news of ALL the candidates. The Record feels that the final decision is up to the voters. It only urges that you consider the qualifications of all the candidates and then be sure to cast your vote.)

Executive

Al Witt Jr.

Albert J. Witt jr., candidate for the office of county executive of San Mateo county, this week issued his formal announcement of his candidacy and declared:

"At the request of many tax-minded citizens and taxpayers of San Mateo county who are appreciative of the work I did during the depression years of 1932-1936 in keeping down the cost of government as county supervisor, I now formally declare my candidacy for county executive of San Mateo county.

"I can point with pride to the fact that I am backed by no group other than non-political citizens and taxpayers of this county who have been long dismayed at the continued increase of taxes under the regime of my opponents as county supervisor and county executive.

"As an independent candidate, free from any political entanglements, my efforts shall always be for the best interest of San Mateo county.

"My record for efficient constructive county government, I feel, qualifies me for the office of county executive. I earnestly solicit the vote of all citizens and taxpayers of San Mateo county."

Tax Collector

R. C. MacArthur

J. E. McCurdy, prominent San Mateo attorney, announced today that he has taken over management of Ralph C. MacArthur's campaign for County Tax Collector at the August 25 Primary Election. McCurdy said an intensive vote-getting drive will be made throughout the county for MacArthur, who has been a prominent resident of Burlingame for many years.

"Ralph C. MacArthur is eminently qualified by training and experience for the position of County Tax Collector," McCurdy said. "His 15 years banking experience, together with many years experience in business management will make him a fitting successor to Ambrose McSweeney, who served this county so well for so many years.

"In the position of Tax Collector there is great responsibility in the proper collection of taxes, and the accounting for millions of dollars. This position should be held by a man whose experience and training fit him for it, and whose honesty and integrity are above reproach. I have known Ralph MacArthur for many years, and I believe San Mateo county is fortunate to have a man of his high type seek public office."

McCurdy said that "MacArthur for Tax Collector clubs are being organized throughout the county.

Assemblyman

Harrison W. Call

Harrison W. Call, San Mateo County State Assemblyman and a candidate for re-election on both the Republican and Democratic tickets, has established a record at Sacramento that has won him the commendation of people throughout the State. Call, who is completing his third term, has established himself as an outstanding leader in Sacramento. During the last session he was chairman of the Committee on Banking and a member of the following committees: Building and Loan Associations, Constitutional Amendments, Financial Institutions, Fish and Game, Oil Industries, Public Morals, Revenue and Taxation, and the powerful Rules Committee, which governs the administration of the Legislature.

He has been acknowledged by sportsmen throughout the State to be one of the best informed men in the field of Fish and Game ever to be a member of the Legislature and has been the author of most of the sportsmen's programs during the past six years.

In the field of Revenue and Taxation he is looked upon as an expert by all who have given thought and study to this field. He is a member of the California Commission for Interstate Cooperation and has just returned from a national conference which met in Salt Lake City for the purpose of studying and preventing, as far as possible, conflicts between national, state, and municipal revenue and taxation activities.

County Coroner

William Crosby

William Crosby, candidate for re-election to the office of San Mateo County Coroner, states that the voters throughout the county are rallying to his support.

They apparently appreciate the efficiency of that office and the sympathetic understanding of problems of sorrow and misfortune peculiar to that office.

The county has been divided into five districts, each district having morgues and trained personnel in charge. Every person connected with the coroner's office is loyal and striving to give the taxpayers of San Mateo county full value for their tax dollars. Petty bickering and disputes of jurisdiction have been entirely eliminated. As a member of the County Executive Committee of Civilian defense I have been able to augment the staff by some 45 civilian defense deputy coroners and emergency morgues placed throughout the county, which I hope and pray will never have to be used, however the office is prepared for any event.

Dr. J. C. McGovern

"Never before in the history of our country has it been so necessary for every man, woman and child to put forth every effort to bring to a successful conclusion the task imposed on us by war," said Dr. J. C. McGovern, candidate for coroner and public administrator of San Mateo county, when interviewed this week.

"For the past two years I have been engaged in various governmental activities, the most important of which is chairman of the Procurement and Assignment committee for the Seventeenth district and chairman of Selective Service Board No. 103.

"Only those close to this work can realize the enormity of this task.

"I realize the most successful method of carrying on a political campaign is by personal contact. However, I believe that it is my patriotic duty that there should be no let up in the important work I am doing.

"For this reason I will ask the voters to bear with me. I will not be able to make the campaign it would be possible for me to make were our country functioning under normal conditions. I am taking this method through the Press of contacting you, the Electorate.

"In presenting my candidacy for the office of Coroner and Public Administrator, I feel that after seven years experience in that office, I am thoroughly qualified. I was born in and know every foot of San Mateo county.

"During my former tenure, following the footsteps of my predecessors, I appointed every mortician in the county a deputy coroner. This gave the county not only the best service without additional expense, but gave those tax payers with thousands of dollars invested an equal share of county cases.

"If returned to the Coroner's office I promise to restore this system of equal rights to all and special privileges to none.

"For the past twenty-five years I have been associated with one of the finest of youth movements, the Boy Scouts of America, and as a good Scout I can make no stronger promise than this, 'on my honor I will do my best,'" Dr. McGovern concluded.

Supervisor

Richard McAllister

Challenging the fairness and extent of representation given by the incumbent supervisor, Richard T. McAllister, who seeks the position of supervisor from the second district, today made a special appeal to residents of South City-Daly City areas for support in his campaign.

McAllister, resident of San Mateo for the past 12 years, is now serving his eighth consecutive term as president of the San Mateo County Central Labor Council; and in addition has been active in county affairs as a member of the San Mateo Junior College Board, as one of the originators of the county Blood Bank; and as a member of the County Charter Study committee.

An appeal to farmers, business, sound thinking and patriotic labor and the rank and file of voters to put an end to the "hot cargo and secondary boycott" in California was issued, last week, by hard hitting Frederick F. Houser, candidate for lieutenant governor on the Republican and Democratic tickets.

Houser fired a fiery denunciation of "hot cargo activities" upon establishing offices in the Chancery building, San Francisco, for his northern California campaign.

"Hot cargo activities are destructive," said Houser. "They are dangerous and decidedly anti-American."

Justice

Wade H. Clay

Judge Wade H. Clay, who is highly respected in this community, is seeking a third successive term as justice of the peace for the first township in San Mateo county.

Judge Clay offers, as his qualifications for the office, the most logical background, that of the past eight years of service as justice of the peace. One of his biggest achievements which he has made since his debut to the office was the installation of a records system which has been in operation ever since.

Distinction came to Judge Clay during his most recent term, when his court was given recognition from the Supreme court as a class A justice court, the first in the county. He has also served since 1935 as city judge in Daly City.

He possesses a sound knowledge of the law, having been admitted to the Bar in 1907, and has carried on an expansive legal practice for the past 35 years.

John J. Fahey Jr.

In discussing his campaign for the office of justice of the peace for the First township, John J. Fahey Jr. pointed to his legal background and twelve years affiliation with the Federal courts, plus his six months experience as city judge of Daly City and acting justice of the peace of this township, as qualifying him for the office of justice of the peace.

Fahey was born in Daly City and has lived here most of his

Following is an editorial published in the Redwood City Star-Advertiser under date of July 31:

We Need A Qualified Leader As County Executive

While we might not have expected quite such a one-sided result in the Star Advertiser's straw poll as it relates to the county executive campaign, it is not surprising to us that the incumbent official has been shown to have lost so much favor with the voters.

Frederick Peterson once had an opportunity to make of the San Mateo county executive-ship an outstanding office that would be a model for other counties dissatisfied with the system that provides no single head. But by his stubbornness, his destructive policies, his apparent desires to establish a political machine, and his disregard for fairness, he has made San Mateo county an example of bad government. In short, he has made what we now realize a failure of his four years in office.

So when the voters are given an opportunity to put in the county executiveship a man of the caliber of Hugh H. Smith, we can see why they favor him overwhelmingly, as the latest tabulation of the Star Advertiser's poll shows.

Compared to what can best be described by the one word incompetency on the part of the incumbent, consider what Mr. Smith has to offer in his candidacy for county manager. It will then be easy to see why this newspaper, as well as many other one-time supporters of Mr. Peterson, are now favoring the candidacy of Mr. Smith.

Hugh H. Smith has shown during almost four decades of business life that he is a success. He operates the largest auto camp in the world, a lumber business, and other interests, which he has developed, but from which he is now virtually retired so that he could devote his full time to the office of county executive.

Mr. Smith has shown in his nearly quarter century of public life—18 years as mayor of Daly City, 4 years as county supervisor—that he can apply to public affairs the lessons he has learned in business. And this is greatly to the advantage of the public, which has to pay for its officials' mistakes if they make any.

Mr. Smith is dignified. He can appear in public to the credit of the county. He can make a speech if need be. He knows the entire county—from past residence in north-end Daly City, from present residence in central San Mateo, from 4 years as supervisor in south-end Redwood City, from social and business contacts throughout the county in the many years he has lived here. He is completely honest. He is able to assume the leadership that is so sorely needed but sadly lacking at present in the executive's office. He does not need the county job, for he is well fixed financially; it needs him.

Mr. Smith's pledge to fight for economy will mean even more to taxpayers than the care-free manner in which the present executive has "handled his friends." Mr. Smith will not fight progressive movements just because they originated in the supervisors' chambers. He will not attempt to run every office in the courthouse except his own, but instead will handle the duties of the office to which he will be elected—county executive.

In our opinion, he is the only candidate on the ballot offering all these qualities. That's why he should be elected county executive August 25.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED!

A change in Supervisors is NECESSARY—we need a man with mental ability to meet RAPIDLY CHANGING CONDITIONS. * * We need a man who can think of TODAY—not of the YESTERDAYS . . . when the county was run for a FEW.

INVISIBLE GREENBACKS

If you were told that you were working against the best interests and aims of the Nation, you would be offended and shocked. But that is precisely what we are doing. You and I—the American people—are now engaged about as actively as we can be in bringing about inflation. So declares Harry Scherman, president of the Book-of-the-Month club, in a recent article, "Invisible Greenbacks," in the Saturday Evening Post. He points out that America is engaged in not one but two major wars and that defeat in either will mean national ruin.

One is a military war to the death against the Axis. The second is against destruction from within—uncontrolled inflation—as devastating as war itself.

Every runaway inflation in history, without exception, according to Scherman, has had the same prime and harmless sounding cause—an enormous and comparatively sudden increase in the money used by the people. Such a swift increase in our Nation's money supply is now taking place invisibly. And it is we—tens of millions of patriotic citizens—who are responsible for most of that increase. By failing to buy War Savings Bonds with all the money we can spare, we are continually forcing the United States Treasury to create new money with which to pay our war bills.

Few Americans now comprehend—few Germans ever did—that the catastrophic German inflation of the 20's thus had its beginning.

In addition to unprecedented tax measures, adopted to raise as much as possible of the huge cost of the war, Secretary Morgenthau has set a goal of twelve billion dollars of War Savings Bonds to be sold to individual citizens during the next year.

If you and I purchase this amount of bonds out of our individually small but collectively vast pocket, we provide the loan with existing money. If we do not, the government is forced to borrow this additional amount from banks in the form of credit which for all practical purposes is the same as creating new money—new, invisible greenbacks—thus adding to the already spiraling national money supply.

And strange as it may seem, government itself, along with you and me, is helping still further to speed up this fatal trend. By not eliminating nonessential, nonwar expenditures, it is forcing itself to create at least another two billion dollars of new, invisible greenbacks each year by unnecessary bank-borrowing to pay for nonessentials.

This Nation must do three things, among others, if we are to have any chance of averting the devastation of inflation, and you and I must not only participate in these steps as patriotic Americans—you and I must voluntarily welcome and demand them if the money we now have in our pockets and the money we hope to earn in the future is to continue to have meaning and value.

1. We must see to it that our government taxes us—and that means all of us—up to the limit of our ability to pay.

2. We must see to it that our government—and that means our federal, state and local government—makes every possible sacrifice and economy not essential to the war.

3. We must—every one of us—stop feeding inflation, and instead put every possible penny into War Savings Bonds and stamps.

The financial fate of the Nation is in our hands—or rather it is in our pockets, yours and mine, the tens of millions of average Americans.

use. Reardon revealed the likelihood of the Bayshore highway being reserved for military traffic only. The coast highway is already closed at night to civilian vehicles. He further expressed the possibility of Skyline boulevard being used exclusively for military traffic.

"If those three highways were closed to civilians in an evacuation," Reardon explained, "it would mean that all San Francisco evacuees in thousands of automobiles would move on two arteries southward—Junipero Serra boulevard and Highway 101."

In case of evacuation, the Daly City Police department, with its large corps of auxiliary officers of civilian defense, would be able to handle traffic in the limits of Daly City or at least keep it moving as much as possible, according to Reardon. Plans are now being formulated for the training of auxiliary police officers to draw traffic lines within the limits of Daly City, and keep the surge of San Francisco and Daly City evacuee traffic moving southward.

"We will post auxiliary police officers at every block on these main thoroughfares within our limits," Reardon said. "These men will be trained in the direction of that traffic, which will be all one way and moving four abreast in places."

Evacuation in San Francisco on a plan of General John De Witt to place soldiers under his command to direct evacuee traffic was assailed by Judge William Denman and termed a "ghastly plan." Further comments by civilian defense leaders of San Francisco expressed the fact that the police department would take charge of the evacuation.

In commenting on this, Chief Reardon had confirmed belief that the traffic situation through Daly City, in case of evacuation, could be handled by the local police department and auxiliary police officers. It is an issue to be disposed of by the federal authorities, Reardon added.

Anderson Begins Important Surveys

Commissioned by the House Naval Affairs Committee with important surveys on the West Coast during the Congressional recess, Congressman Jack Anderson arrived in the Bay area over the week-end to begin his work. Following a few days' rest at his San Juan Bautista ranch, the first since Congress opened in January of 1940, Anderson will begin immediately his naval affairs assignments.

Enroute here from Washington, Anderson and other members of the committee inspected the Naval training station for pilots at Corpus Christie, and then came on to San Diego, where they inspected Navy, Marine and air bases. Anderson has been commissioned to make a thorough survey of all Navy and ship-building work in the Bay area, and to file a complete report with the committee upon his return to Washington.

At his San Juan Bautista ranch the Eighth district Congressman said he had not been favorable to the recess, because he firmly believes Congress should be immediately available in case of necessity. He explained, however, that the President informed the Speaker of the House there was no more legislation needed at present, and the House could take a limited recess. The House, he added, voted the recess.

"Naturally, I am happy," Anderson said, "for the opportunity to have a short visit home, the first in two years, but I do not think the House should recess in times like these. However, there is much work to be done here, and nearly all my time will be taken up with the assignments given to me by the Naval Affairs Committee immediately after the recess."

"I must leave the bulk of my campaign for re-election in the hands of my many friends who have been carrying on so generously on my behalf during my absence. I am here now to do a definite job for the Naval Affairs Committee, of which I am a member, and naturally that will come first."

Congressman Anderson will make his first report to the citizens of the district over the air tomorrow night. He will speak from 6 to 6:15 p. m. over Station KQW, San Jose, and KHUB, Watsonville. It is expected he will talk on important national issues.

SAFeway Homemakers' Guide

★ How to have more fun during vacation ★ A list of fine foods, low-priced every day ★ What one girl learned about easy shopping

We can proudly say—our service may not be quite as fast

Our service may not be quite as fast as you've come to expect—for each day more and more Safeway men are joining the armed forces. We tell you this with pride and with the hope that you'll understand. For there isn't time to carefully train new people to take the place of experienced Safeway men. But our new people are all working hard to fill their shoes as fast as possible.

How to keep cooking from spoiling your vacation

Like most of us, you are probably staying close to home for your vacation this year—which means that household duties may go on as usual, vacation or no vacation. But with a little clever planning, you'll be amazed at how much more time there is for leisure. And you'll find vacations at home can really be lots of fun.

Below, the Safeway Homemakers' Bureau has suggested several time-saving ideas.
See if you don't think they're good ones.

Plan menus ahead of time. Allow plenty of variety, including a few foods you don't often buy; but choose things that cook quickly, or may be partially prepared in advance. Don't undertake elaborate, time-consuming cookery—unless that's your idea of fun!

Plan shopping lists with menus.
Streamline your shopping trips to a minimum. There's no point in spending your vacation traveling back and forth to the store. Buy the major part of your groceries early in the week. Then, in between times, you'll only need to buy the most perishable foods.

Be leisurely. Shop early in the day when stores are less crowded—you are less rushed—and the selection is better.

Be forehanded. Plan foods that can be prepared in advance. Meat loaves, casseroles, molded salads, puddings and cookies are good examples.

Be cool. Do your heavy cooking in the cool of the morning, or even the night before if possible.

Be smart. Purposely plan meat leftovers every so often for easy second-day cooking. Roasts, fried chicken, baked ham, for instance.

And here's a menu that shows you what we mean by advance preparation and tasty eating.

Victory Topping

The patriotic "V" is becoming more and more popular on salads and desserts. On the former, strips of carrot or green pepper are in order. On desserts, piped whipped cream is excellent.

"V" stands for Victory with us. But our food "V" should adorn dishes that mean Vim, Vigor and Vitality as well. Yes, and conservation too, even though our "V" appears in the center of this important word.

Here is a new "V" dish that fills the entire bill. Milk is furnished in a form children love. The chocolate flavor appeals to father. The economy and ease of preparation suits mother to perfection. The novel Victory topping is timely, tasty and attractive enough to delight both family and guests.

Try this Victory Dessert today:

Chocolate Victory Rennet-Custard
2 cups milk, not canned
1 pkg. chocolate rennet powder
½ cup whipped cream

Set out 4 or 5 individual dessert dishes. Warm milk slowly, stirring constantly. Test a drop on inside of wrist frequently. When COMFORTABLY WARM, (110° F.), not hot, remove at once from heat. Stir contents of package chocolate rennet powder into milk briskly until dissolved—not over one minute. Pour at once into individual dessert dishes. Do not move until firm—about 10 minutes. Chill in refrigerator. Just before serving, garnish by piping whipped cream through pastry tube on surface to represent a "V". Serves 4 or 5.

to make donations of scrap metal.

In issuing instructions for the campaign, Crane asked local donors to deposit scrap metal only in this particular collection and not tin cans. Crane said that there have been many tin cans included in the collection at the Mission street depot. He pointed out that the tin can drive is entirely separate from the scrap metal drive. The tin cans are to be picked up from the street corners on the first and third Sundays.

War production planners gave many reasons for the scrap shortage today, and cited two chief ones.

First, production has moved faster this year than at any time in history. United States steel mills, in six months of 1942, used up more scrap than in all of 1917, and three times as much as in all of 1932.

Secondly, railroads and other peacetime sources of scrap metal are supplying less than they normally do, because they are hanging on to old equipment, being unable to get new equipment in many cases.

The government, therefore, must depend upon this new source of scrap metal, the campaign for scrap which is found in our homes.

Let's back this drive one hundred per cent to allow America's war production to continue uninterrupted. Remember, you don't have to wait until that junk rally. Your scrap metal is needed NOW. Take it to the vacant lot across the street from the Daly City theatre on Mission street.

"Drop Your Scrap and Lick a Jap!" How many Japs will we lick if everybody drops scrap metal there?

Ten per cent of your income in War Bonds will help to build the planes and tanks that will insure defeat of Hitler and his Axis partners.

fats to the munitions manufacturer are turned over to the USO.

All Daly City housewives were asked to join in the drive by donating all waste fats and grease. Any local butcher shop is a collection depot.

Because the butcher receives from the manufacturer, in payment, only enough to cover handling charges, the drive in San Mateo county is being managed strictly on a donation basis. Furthermore, all proceeds are given to the USO.

Two instructions are given for making these donations. First, bring the waste fats and grease to the butcher shop in a tin can, not in a glass container. Second, keep the cooked fats separate from the raw fats.

Lost and found columns of Tokio newspapers are crowded these days. Every time an American buys a War Bond, the Japs lose face. Buy your 10% every pay day.
